ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

TERRORISTS IN ISRAEL

• Ms. MIKULSKI. Mr. President, once again, terrorists have targeted the heart of Israel. My prayers are with the people of Israel as they mourn the latest victims. Over 60 people have died in the terror of the last 10 days, and the peace process may die as well.

We cannot understand the kind of evil and cowardice that kills children as they walk to a party; families as they walk down the street on a holiday; ordinary and innocent people on their way to work. They time their attacks to kill as many civilians as possible. They load their bombs with nails—to make sure that all injuries are serious. Their goal is to kill Jews and to strike a death knell on the peace process.

Israelis are angry and afraid. Their confidence in the peace process is badly shaken—and I don't blame them. They have given up land and security in exchange for peace. Yet they still live under constant threat.

We must stand by Israel as a friend and ally. I support the President's plan to provide immediate assistance to Israel. The United States will use our intelligence agencies to help them route out these terrorists. We will provide specialized explosive detection equipment and technical experts. And America will lead an international effort to better coordinate the war against terrorism. Only an international effort will track down these killers and those who bankroll them. The international community must also condemn these acts of terrorism—and ensure that no country provides a sanctuary for these killers.

The Palestinian Authority can and must do more to stop Hamas. If they don't show the will to confront terrorism, the chance for peace will be lost.

I hope that the peace process can continue. But friends do not tell friends what to do. As Americans, we cannot tell Israel what risks are worth taking for peace. We can only imagine what it is to live in a country that is less than 9 miles wide at its narrowest point—and still surrounded by enemies.

Israel has defended itself in five wars for survival. But in this war against terrorism, all ordinary citizens are on the front lines. The international community must stand with Israel. We must ensure that the fanatics do not prevail.●

HONORING THE U.S. TAP TEAM

• Mr. LIEBERMAN. Mr. President, I rise today to honor Gloria Jean Cuming and the United States Tap Team, recent winners of the Annual World TapDance Championships, which were held in Dresden, Germany.

Not only is this victory prestigious and respected around the world, but the victory was a special one for the team and our country. This is the first time in the history of the competition that the U.S. team won the coveted title. In addition to the sterling team performance, two individuals, Linda Provo and Stacy Eastman, advanced to the finals of the individual competition, the only 2 women among the 12 semi-finalists to do so.

All 22 dancers are from the New Haven area in my State of Connecticut, and they all study at Ms. Cuming's dance studios. Ms. Cuming not only selected the team, but was their choreographer and assistant technical director as well.

Mr. President, I know that you and the entire Senate joins me in congratulating these fine performers, who represent their art and their country with the greatest of skill and pride.●

MARY BETH BLEGEN, MINNESOTA TEACHER OF THE YEAR

• Mr. WELLSTONE. Mr. President, with great pleasure and enthusiasm I would like to recognize Mary Beth Blegen as the Minnesota Teacher of the Year. Not only has Ms. Blegen been awarded the 1995 Minnesota Teacher of the Year, but she has also been selected as one of the four distinguished finalists for the National Teacher of the Year program. Ms. Blegen arrived in Washington Sunday and has been giving a presentation sharing her dedication to the youth of Minnesota, attending press conferences, and giving interviews for the National Teacher of the Year Award. Despite her rigorous schedule I was delighted to meet with Ms. Blegen to give her my support and of course wish her the best in the competition.

Mary Beth Blegen a dedicated educator for 30 years, is a teacher of English, writing, and humanities at Worthington Senior High School. Ms. Blegen illustrates the dedication Minnesotans have to providing quality education for our children. It is also my honor to note that three previous National Teachers of the Year have been from Minnesota and only California has contributed more teachers to this national award.

I'd also like to recognize Minnesota's biggest education organization, the Minnesota Education Association [MEA], and its 48,000 members, who represent over 80 percent of Minnesota's public school teachers. MEA has sponsored the Minnesota Teacher of the Year program for 33 years.●

TAX RELIEF FOR UNITED STATES TROOPS SERVING IN BOSNIA

Mr. D'AMATO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of H.R. 2778, just received from the House.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The clerk will state the bill by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (H.R. 2778) to provide that members of the Armed Forces performing services for the peacekeeping efforts in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia and Macedonia, shall be entitled to tax benefits in the same manner as if such services were performed in a combat zone, and for other purposes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the immediate consideration of the bill?

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Mr. ROTH. Mr. President, the House recently passed legislation to provide much needed tax relief for American troops who are performing peacekeeping services in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia and Macedonia.

When our young men and women wear our uniform in these war-torn regions, I want them to know that they have my unqualified support. I want them to know that they are there for a reason. They are on important missions—missions to help free these war-torn areas from their undemocratic pasts.

While I would have preferred to limit our involvement to strategic and tactical air and sea support, we must now give our full support to our troops. This legislation provides much needed tax relief for our troops in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, and Macedonia.

Let me briefly outline the major aspects of this legislation. First, the bill exempts from Federal income tax military pay received by enlisted personnel while performing peacekeeping services in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, and Macedonia.

Second, the bill exempts military pay received by commissioned officers while serving in those areas in an amount equal to the highest monthly pay for enlisted personnel which is currently $4,104.80 per month.

Third, military pay received by those hospitalized as a result of injuries incurred while performing peacekeeping
